A photograph taken from a doorway, looking out onto a garden. The scene is framed by the white door on the left and the dark frame of the doorway on the right. In the foreground, a concrete patio leads to a gravel-covered area. On the gravel, there is a set of dark metal outdoor furniture consisting of two tables and four chairs. Above the furniture, a pergola structure is visible, with lush green leaves and long, cascading clusters of light pink wisteria flowers hanging down. In the background, there is a white building with a corrugated metal roof and a white pillar. The lighting is bright, suggesting a sunny day, with shadows cast on the gravel and concrete.
